Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Presentation from Jane Prowse

On Friday 10th May your son/daughter is being given the exciting opportunity to enjoy a presentation from Jane Prowse. Jane has an impressive record as a television and theatre director and script writer. She also has a trilogy of books published, aimed at younger teenagers. Jane will share her media experiences with our students and also talk about how she moved into writing for young people. Her books are exciting adventure stories, with strong role models where good defeats evil. Family cohesion and friendships are tested but a deep moral undercurrent prevails.

The event will be held in the Hall for an hour in the morning.

You can find out more about Jane and her books at <http://www.janeprowse.com/>

There will be the opportunity for students to buy Jane's books on the day at a reduced price of £5 for one, or the trilogy for £12. Jane will sign their books.

I am sure you recognise the value of this literacy event to gain an insight to the world of creative writing.

Yours faithfully
